Department of Media and Digital Technologies

With more than 4,000 students in nine topic areas, the St. Pölten University of Applied Sciences is a key player in the Austrian higher education sector and one of the most important employers in the region. The St. Pölten UAS stands for unique creative possibilities as well as team-oriented collaboration and leaves room for individual development and personal growth.

Staff members also profit from our European network within the context of the University Alliance E³UDRES²! The University of Applied Sciences is constantly growing.

What you will be working on:

- You are responsible for managing the Institute of Creative\Media/Technologies (ICMT) with a team of approx. 50 persons
- You take over central agendas of operational management (including budget and personnel responsibility), strategic orientation, and the positioning and further development of the ICMT
- You coordinate the research groups of the ICMT and take over the management of the interdisciplinary centres/hubs
- You stimulate and initiate RDI activities and independently acquire third-party funds
- You independently conduct research and teach in the field of Media and Digital Technologies
- You promote the connection between research, knowledge transfer, and teaching
- You engage in networking with relevant partners in regional, national, and international contexts

What we expect from you:

- Successfully completed technical study programme: PhD required, habilitation is an advantage
- Own research and publication activity in relevant research fields of the ICMT
- Comprehensive experience in the acquisition of third-party funds (national/international research promotion and contract research)
- High level of expertise and good networks in the area of Digital Technologies and Media (media production, media management, media informatics) at the national and European levels
- Good knowledge of current concepts in higher education didactics and knowledge transfer (teaching experience desirable)
- Experience in the management of interdisciplinary research teams (preferably in the higher education sector)
- Very good written and oral English language skills (for international applicants: at least basic knowledge of the German language and willingness to learn more)
